Prayer of Jehoshaphat 2Chronicles 20:5-12

“O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You? Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever? And they dwell in it, and have built You a sanctuary in it for Your name, saying, ‘If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save.’ And now, here are the people of Ammon, Moab, and Mount Seir—whom You would not let Israel invade when they came out of the land of Egypt, but they turned from them and did not destroy them— here they are, rewarding us by coming to throw us out of Your possession which You have given us to inherit. O our God, will You not judge them? For we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You.”

Prayer of Jehoshaphat 2Chronicles 20:5-12

Prayer by St Ephrem the Syrian

Blessed are they who have loved God, and because of their love for Him have come to despise all that is earthly. Blessed are they who weep day and night, for they shall be delivered from future wrath. Blessed are they who willingly humble themselves, for they shall be exalted. Blessed are they who exercise restraint, for the joys of paradise await them. Blessed are they who afflict their bodies with vigilance and feats of asceticism, for the delight of paradise has been prepared for them. Blessed are they who have cleansed themselves of all evil thoughts, for the Holy Spirit dwells within them. Blessed are they who with all their soul love God more than this world, for they shall be called friends of Christ. Blessed are they who have willingly borne their cross and actively followed Christ, for they shall attain the Jerusalem on high. Blessed are they who have girded their loins with truth and keep their lamps ready

Prayer by St Ephrem the Syrian

Expecting the heavenly Bridegroom for they shall reign with Him in the heavenly kingdom. Blessed is he who has obtained the eyes of the mind and unflinching applied them in contemplation of future blessings, for he shall inherit those good things to come. Blessed is he who never fails to keep the day of judgment before his eyes, and endeavors to be found pleasing to God in that day.

Blessed is he who has conquered the carnal pleasures, for at the trial of the last day he shall be made bold.

Blessed is he who has wept for God on earth, for his fruits shall be borne in heaven.
